US2U Ready to Rock in Milestone Year!

2016 represents a milestone year for US2U Consulting, with the company celebrating its 10th Birthday on the 1 April.

To mark this achievement we have a series of celebrations planned over the next few months. And because we'd like to keep a snapshot of everything, we've sourced a giant US2U Consulting Instagram frame!

If you'd like to be pictured in our frame as part of our birthday celebrations, or have a suggestion for any photo opportunities we need to visit, please get in touch!

By the way, remember those orange sticks of US2U rock from when we started the company all those years ago? Keep your eyes peeled for these making a comeback in the coming weeks...

Hitting the Target with Harrod UK

"As a result of our coaching programme I have seen people grow and develop their skills and their teams. They have developed their confidence to get long lasting results. This is helping our drive for continuous improvement and we have really seen a positive difference. Two people have earned promotions so far. I have kicked myself that we didn't do this 10 years ago!"

Director, Harrod UK

Key for 2016: Staff Engagement

This year, the issue of making sure your workforce is fully engaged with your business plans, standards and values looks set to become increasingly important to maintain Competitive Advantage for your organisation.

Clearly we need to avoid the type of situation shown in the photo below.

We can help review your existing levels of staff engagement and plan strategies to fill the gaps so you have a great 2016!

Taking their next steps...

You may remember we recently won a signed, match worn pair of Wayne Rooney's football boots, and were looking for a new home for them.

Well, good news - we found a buyer who paid £1000 for them, which we plan to put towards good causes later this year!
