

US2U Consulting Coronavirus Update

We hope that you are coping OK personally and professionally during these difficult times. US2U Consulting is very much open for business and are fortunate that we have not had to furlough any of the team. We are here ready to support your business strategies for "Building Back Better" and "Creating the New Normal".

Meanwhile we have been adapting our services including:

- Delivering 1:1 coaching sessions and 360 Degree Feedback sessions on line using Zoom and Teams
- Introducing the Power Hour Consultancy Service
- Planning Leadership workshops for the Autumn incorporating smaller groups for social distancing
- Launching online courses available to buy as a company or individual

US2U Celebrates 14th Birthday

It was challenging to decide how to celebrate our 14th birthday in April so we decided to write and record a poem linking the company achievements to current events. Please click here to see the recording.

New Online Courses to Buy!

Having talked about it for 3 years we have actually produced our first two online courses on the learning platform Udemy. Based on popular sessions that we coach face to face, one is a guide to Producing a Robust Business Plan and the other covers Influencing Skills to Achieve Your Goals. These can be used as standalone learning or as a refresher.

Please see here for full details

FREE for the first 10 people to enrol in the next 30 days.

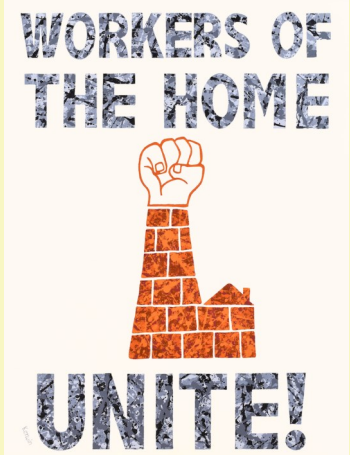

Use code US2UBUSPLAN.

Please give us a positive review!

Workers of the Home, Unite! NHS Fundraiser

Kerwin Blackburn has painted an acrylic on canvas painting in recognition of all the working from home that has been taking place during the lockdown. Available to buy as a print, with £15 from each print going to NHS Norfolk & Norwich. Please see details here.

Another Positive Testimonial

"Thank you so much for your work yesterday. Everyone got a lot out of it. You performed miracles in very difficult circumstances."

HR Manager, Snap-on

