US2U Consulting says Farewell to Kieran

Kieran Compton leaves us after joining earlier in the year on a 3 month internship, having worked on a range of projects both internally and externally, including developing our privacy policy in line with GDPR.

He now moves onto the next stage of his career working in a project-based role near Tower Bridge, London. Good luck, Kieran!

Rachel Blackburn continues Saudi Drive

Rachel Blackburn will be delivering a talk at Jeddah Chamber, Saudi Arabia, on Writing a Business Plan and The Empowering Women Programme on Monday 1 October.

The talk aims to attract Saudi female entrepreneurs to register for our UK-based Empowering Women Programme beginning on 10 December. Find out more here.

Sharing some of our latest Testimonials...

"US2U Consulting's mental health training probably provoked more positive discussion and feedback than any other programme we've ever done before. We have updated our Mental Health Policy, introduced a Wellness Action Plan, and have had six managers say they would like to become Mental Health Champions..." HR Director, Worldwide Fruit

"Thank you to US2U Consulting for supporting our continuous improvement strategy within the Student Support Services at the UEA They always take a flexible approach and have a good grasp of our needs, priorities and culture" Director of Student Services, University of East Anglia Student Support Services

"It has been very helpful for our business to use the recruitment service of US2U Consulting for our three recent campaigns We plan to use their recruitment services again in the future and would recommend these to other companies for this type of business support." Director, ASAMS
